Excellence in education

Definition of Academic Dishonesty

Torrence Creek Elementary School is dedicated to academic integrity. To help all stakeholders in this process we have created the Definition of Academic Dishonesty that outlines those actions that do not align with our goals here at Torrence Creek.

Cheating in any form will not be tolerated. This includes but is not limited to:

- Passing questions or obtaining questions to or from other students in that class or in another class.
- Receiving help for an assignment that has been identified as an independent assignment is unacceptable
- Copying or allowing someone to copy answers
- "Cheat sheets"
- Obtaining a copy of the test prior to the testing date.
- During the testing time: looking around the room, leaving books and/or notes open, signaling to another student, talking, using a cell phone or camera to copy test questions or use in a way to research the answer.
- Use of any electronic device that gives you an unfair advantage.

Plagiarism

- Copy or paraphrase or summarizing ideas, sentences, phrases, or paragraphs without using appropriate citation and documentation.
- Turning in another student's work as your own.
- Downloading from the internet or any other electronic source a research paper or article either in full or in part and turning it in as your own.
- Paying or asking another person to write your assignment/paper or selling or giving another student your work.
- Use of any electronic device that gives you an unfair advantage: including calculators and language translation devices.

Lab Assignments/Reports

- Corrupting another student's work
- Presenting another's computations, graphs, diagrams, and answers as your own work.
- Misrepresenting lab results
- Using a cell phone or camera to copy labs.

Use of Electronic Devices

- Use of any calculator that is either not approved by the teacher or not permitted due to the assignment.
- Placing information on a calculator and/or sharing information on a calculator about a test or quiz
- Using a cell phone or camera to copy labs.

Penalties for Honor Code violations will be handled on a case by case manner due to severity or repeat behavior and may include, but are not limited to the following :

- No credit for the assignment
- Conference with parents or guardians, administration, and other stakeholders
- Removal from the Cambridge Program
- Disciplinary action by administration

Honor Code

As a Cambridge student I promise the following:

1. I promise to always work hard.
2. I promise to always do my own work.
3. I promise not to ask for answers and give answers to other students on tests and independent assignments.
4. I promise to be honest.

I understand that cheating, in any form, may result in removal from the Cambridge International Program.
